FULL-TIME RESEARCH AND TEACHING ASSISTANT POSITION
IN CHEMISTRY
FACULTY OF SCIENCES

Reference : 2024/S243
Application deadline: 27/06/2024
Start date : 01/10/2024

Job Description

This position is intended for candidates wishing to undertake a PhD in Science in the field of chemistry. The work includes two aspects: a research activity in chemistry on the one hand, and on the other hand the supervision of practical work and exercise sessions (about 300 hours per year) for courses in the undergraduate program, mainly in general chemistry and/or analytical chemistry. As part of the doctoral thesis that they will carry out in parallel, they will conduct research that is part of the activities of one of the laboratories of the Chemistry Department (listed at the address https://sciences.ulb.be/departement-chimie).

Each candidate must have made prior contact with one of the members of the Academic Staff of the Department, who would agree to supervise him/her for the doctoral research. The assistant position provides a rich experience in the field of higher education, and also constitutes privileged access to the doctorate. The salary conditions are competitive.

A first term of two years is given, renewable maximum twice for two years each time after advice from the competent committees.

Skills required

A licence or master’s degree (120 ECTS) in chemistry or a degree equivalent, and satisfy to the conditions of access to the doctorate degree.

- High level of scientific knowledge in chemistry.
- Excellent teaching skills.
- Ability to work effectively as part of a teaching team.
- Punctuality and reliability in the execution of logistical tasks.
- Excellent knowledge of French.

Courses covered

Exercises and practical work in first cycle chemistry, mainly in general chemistry (CHIM-F-101) and/or analytical chemistry (CHIM-F-201, CHIM-F-302).
