

Master in Modern Languages and Letters : German, Dutch and English

Focus Teaching

The programme includes courses and seminars centres on developing the linguistic and literary knowledge acquired during the Bachelor (65 credits); a dissertation (25 credits); and courses specific to each focus (30 credits).

Four focuses are available for this Master:

- > the teaching focus provides the methodological skills necessary to teach in secondary schools, while also developing the students' abilities in the fields of training, argumentation, and knowledge sharing.
- > the focus on North American studies provides in-depth knowledge of the United States' and Canada's cultures.
- > the focus on a third language lets students become proficient in an additional language—Arabic, Croatian, Czech, Dutch, English, German, Italian, Japanese, modern Greek, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Russian, Slovene, Spanish, or Turkish—, with no prerequisites.
- > students in the focus on languages and cultures from Central Europe become proficient in at least two languages from Central Europe—Czech, German, or Polish—, while also gaining in-depth knowledge of the cultures in this area. This focus is open to students in Modern Languages and Letters: Germanic Languages who have been studying German since the Bachelor, or to students who meet the prerequisite level in German. The programme includes a four-month exchange with the universities of Leipzig, Brno, or Warsaw, leading to a joint degree.

Master in Modern Languages and Letters : German, Dutch and English

Focus European Central European languages and cultures

The programme includes courses and seminars centres on developing the linguistic and literary knowledge acquired during the Bachelor (65 credits); a dissertation (25 credits); and courses specific to each focus (30 credits).

Four focuses are available for this Master:

- the teaching focus provides the methodological skills necessary to teach in secondary schools, while also developing the students' abilities in the fields of training, argumentation, and knowledge sharing.
- the focus on North American studies provides in-depth knowledge of the United States' and Canada's cultures.
- the focus on a third language lets students become proficient in an additional language—Arabic, Croatian, Czech, Dutch, English, German, Italian, Japanese, modern Greek, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Russian, Slovene, Spanish, or Turkish—, with no prerequisites.
- students in the focus on languages and cultures from Central Europe become proficient in at least two languages from Central Europe—Czech, German, or Polish—, while also gaining in-depth knowledge of the cultures in this area. This focus is open to students in Modern Languages and Letters: Germanic Languages who have been studying German since the Bachelor, or to students who meet the prerequisite level in German. The programme includes a four-month exchange with the universities of Leipzig, Brno, or Warsaw, leading to a joint degree.
