

Théories du droit international public

Lecturer

Anne LAGERWALL (Coordinator)

Course mnemonic

DROI-C5106

ECTS credits

5 credits

Language(s) of instruction

French

Course period

Second term

References, bibliography and recommended reading

Voir plan de cours/See course outline

Other information

Contact(s)

Secrétariat facultaire : 02.650.39.36, 39.37, 39.40, 39.41, 3673
Secrétariat du Centre de droit international : 02.650.34.01

Evaluation method(s)

Other

Evaluation method(s) (additional information)

Partly based on notes to be produced by the students for the seminars, partly oral examination (comments on scholarly writings or on documents)

Programmes

Programmes proposing this course at the faculty of Law and Criminology

MA-DROI | Master in Law | finalité Public and International law/unit 1
and MS-DINT | Specialized Master in International Law | unit U

Course content

Positivism in public international law. How various schools of thought envisage the system of sources of international law, the types of relations between subjects of the international legal order, interpretation, and the relationship between law and ideology

Objectives (and/or specific learning outcomes)

Provide a theoretical background that would enable students to better grasp the fundamental concepts and mechanisms of the international legal order

Teaching method and learning activities

Partly ex cathedra, partly seminar with discussion of specific topics (based on preparatory reading assignments)