

Histologie et TP - module 2

Lecturer

levgeniia PASTUSHENKO (Coordinator)

Course mnemonic

MORF-G2206

ECTS credits

5 credits

Language(s) of instruction

French

Course period

First term

Course content

- > Theoretical course: Functional organisation of cells in tissues, systems and organs. Immune system. Skin. Respiratory system. Urinary system. Digestive system. Endocrine system. Male genital system. Female genital system.
- > Practical works: microscopic study of tissue slides.

Objectives (and/or specific learning outcomes)

Acquisition of knowledge of microscopic structure of human tissues and organs, in relationship with their molecular and functional organisation

Pre-requisites and co-requisites

Pre-requisites courses

MORF-G1104 | Anatomie | 5 crédits

Co-requisites courses

MORF-G2208 | Histologie et TP module I | 5 crédits

Courses having this one as pre-requisit

MORF-G3306 | Anatomie pathologique générale | 5 crédits and
MORF-G3421 | Anatomie pathologique spéciale | 5 crédits

Teaching method and learning activities

- > Theoretical courses: lectures.
- > Practical works: microscopy.

Contribution to the teaching profile

- > Acquisition of basic scientific knowledge in these disciplines
- To show ability of autoevaluation and retroaction - To be open-minded to research and to show scientific curiosity

References, bibliography and recommended reading

Evaluation method(s)

Other

Evaluation method(s) (additional information)

- > Special Histology: Theory: written examination (multiple choice questionnaire).
- > Practical works: oral examination and microscopic analysis of tissue slides.

Determination of the mark (including the weighting of partial marks)

A global examination mark combining Theory (60%) and practical works (40%).

if a partial mark (Theory or Practical work) is inferior to 08/20, the maximal global examination mark is 07/20.

The global examination marks equal or superior to 10/20 will be reported to the next academic year.

The examination marks inferior to 10/20 will not benefit from a partial report (Theory or Practical works) to the next academic year.
