Texts about everyday life, with audio records. Grammar and exercises.

Objectives (and/or specific learning outcomes)

Knowing the grammatical rules of the language, having a conversation regarding the everyday life as well as the professional context

Teaching method and learning activities

The course is given in Colloquial Arabic, and is based on a Manual with audio records (see bibliography)

Contribution to the teaching profile

Mastering Colloquial Arabic is fundamental, considering that Standard Arabic is mainly used in formal situations. Any conversation in everyday life is generally conducted in Colloquial Arabic. The choice of Middle Eastern Arabic allows the student to interact in at least five countries of the area (PALEstine, Israel, Lebanon, Syria, Jordan) and to get acquainted with other varieties of Arabic (Iraqi Arabic, Egyptian Arabic)
