Evaluation method(s)

Written report, Oral presentation and Personal work

Evaluation method(s) (additional information)

- > Active classroom participation
- > A term paper: 3500-4500 words, with references and footnotes
- > Oral presentation/defence of the paper

Determination of the mark (including the weighting of partial marks)

The mark for the term paper receives a higher weighting (65%) than the oral presentation (35%).

Classroom participation is mandatory. It will have an impact on your final grade.

Students must get at least 10/20 on the paper in order to be allowed to give their oral presentation. Students who didn't obtain the credits for the course in June will have to redo in August all the parts of the evaluation for which they got less than 10.
