Course content

This course provides for an interdisciplinary understanding of the rule of law and mutual trust in global and European governance. It brings together the political and legal perspectives, taught by a political scientist (prof. Ramona Coman) and an academic specialized in European Law (prof. Cecilia Rizcallah).

The course

- > examines the normative, legal and political dimensions of the rule of law and mutual trust.
- > seeks to identify the main actors involved in the rule of law and mutual trust promotion and the reasons of their diffusion at the European and global level
- > focuses on the politics of the rule of law in the EU and the emergence of a rule of law policy
- > sheds light on how these principles are implemented in the EU, drawing on a selected number of cases.
- > scrutinizes the EU through comparative lenses by considering the rule of law and mutual trust approaches of other international/regional organisations

21/09 - Lecture 1 - The normative foundations of the rule of law

28/09 - Lecture 2 - International/regional actors, tools and approaches

5/10 - Lecture 3 - Rule of law in the EU. Tools and Challenges. The role of the European Commission

12/10 - Lecture 4 - Rule of law in the EU. Tools and Challenges. The role of the European Parliament

19/10 - Lecture 5 - Tools and Challenges. The role of the Council/ European Council. Article 7 TEU

26/10 - Lecture 6 : The adoption and implementation of Regulation 2020/2092 and the general regime of conditionalities in the EU including the Recovery and Resilience Facility (Next Generation EU)

09/11 - Lecture 7 - The architecture of the protection of fundamental rights in the EU

16/11 - Lecture 8 - The protection of EU values and judicial independence by the EU Court of Justice

23/11 - Lecture 9 - The principle of mutual trust: a new constitutional principle of EU law based on EU common values (1st part)

30/11 - Lecture 10 - The principle of mutual trust: a new constitutional principle of EU law based on EU common values (2nd Part)

7/12 - Lecture 11 - The principle of mutual trust and the ECHR (Gisela Gori)

14/12 - Lecture 12 - Conclusions and Q&A session

Objectives (and/or specific learning outcomes)

After successfully completing this course participants will:

- > understand and be able to reflect on the broader definition of rule of law and mutual trust;
- > understand the normative, legal and political dimensions of these principles
- > have a comparative understanding on how the EU and other international/regional organizations promote these principles
- > be able to explain how the rule of law and mutual trust are implemented in the EU
- > be able to explain why the EU integration process is based on mutual trust and the rule of law.
- > and ultimately explain the politics of the rule of law in the EU and the emergence of new tools, as well as increased contestation and dissensus over values.

In addition, students will be able:

- > to use this knowledge to interpret key political and legal issues as well as recent developments in the EU
- > to engage critically with important political/legal issues
