

Introduction à l'histoire moderne et contemporaine

Lecturer

Irene DI JORIO (Coordinator)

Course mnemonic

HIST-B130

ECTS credits

5 credits

Language(s) of instruction

French

Course period

First term

Course content

Through a chronological and thematic approach, the course offers an overall analysis of the basic concepts and interpretations of modern and contemporary history since the late fifteenth century. The course covers the major political, social and cultural trends crossing modern and contemporary age. It takes into account European-wide, national and transnational perspectives, following as a "fil rouge" the plural and transversal question of communication(s).

Objectives (and/or specific learning outcomes)

To give students essential benchmarks on standard concepts and interpretations of modern and contemporary history.

Teaching method and learning activities

Lectures ex cathedra supported by PPT, also available on the Virtual University website.

References, bibliography and recommended reading

The bibliography will be made available on the Virtual University website.

Other information

Contact(s)

idijorio@ulb.ac.be

Evaluation method(s)

written examination

Evaluation method(s) (additional information)

Written Exam

Programmes

Programmes proposing this course at the faculty of Letters, Translation and Communication

BA-COMM | Bachelor in Information and Communication | unit 1