Bachelor in Political Sciences: General

The 2024-2025 programme is subject to change. It is provided for information purposes only.

Programme objectives

The bachelor’s in political sciences aims at developing your knowledge in the field of political science and at expanding your skills in humanities in general (history, law, economics, etc.).

At the end of the program, you will have acquired:

➢ A knowledge of the various sub-fields in political science;
➢ An opening to other fields that will allow you to analyze political and social issues from different angles and approaches;
➢ An analytical and university reasoning based on methodological rigor;
➢ Advanced writing and presentation skills in French;
➢ Additional linguistic skills that are essential in the professional world;
➢ An opening to the world.

Programme’s added value

Choosing the bachelor’s in political sciences, it is:

➢ To study in an internationally renowned department. For the fourth consecutive year, SciencePo ULB was ranked in the Top 100 worldwide. We ranked 1st in Belgium and Top 5 of French-speaking institutions worldwide in the field of political science and international relations (QS World University Ranking by Subject 2018);
➢ To follow courses taught by high-level researchers and practitioners;
➢ To benefit from a multilingual environment;
➢ To benefit from a learning support program;
➢ To have the possibility to experience an international exchange in Bloc 3, for 1 term or 1 year in one of our 90+ partner universities in 30+ countries in Europe and in the world (Canada, China, Brazil, United States, Japan, etc.).
➢ To choose for an international environment: among the faculty and researchers of the Department, there are more than 15 different nationalities, and almost 50% of our students are from outside of Belgium;
➢ To study political science in Brussels, the capital of Europe and second largest city worldwide in terms of international institutions;
➢ To open the doors of potential careers in national, European, international, regional or local institutions, as well as in the political, social, or economic world, associations, media, the private sector (consultancy, public relations), and education or research.

International/Openness

SciencePo ULB has a long tradition of international exchanges with 90+ partner universities in 30+ countries in the European Union and the world pays de l’Union européenne, ainsi que hors Union européenne (Canada, China, Brazil, United States, Japan, etc.).

Discover our partner universities [https://ulb.moveon4.com/publisher/7/fra]

At SciencePo ULB, internationalization also occurs in Brussels. Among the faculty, there are more than 15 nationalities, and almost half of our students are from outside Belgium.

You will study political science in Brussels, the capital of Europe and second largest city in the world in terms of international institutions. More than a third of Brussels residents are non-Belgian.

Job opportunities

With an additional master’s degree in political science, international relations, public administration, or European studies, graduates of this program will be able to orient their career path to a wide range of jobs in various sectors:

- Career in the European sector at the heart of Europe: European civil servant, European institutions or organizations;
- Career in the international sector: diplomacy, international institutions such as the U.N., OECD, WTO, etc.;
- Career in the social and political sector: political parties, unions, lobbies, ministerial or parliamentary assistant, etc.;
- Top civil servant in the Belgium public administration;
- Career in the non-profit sector: NGO, humanitarian, etc.;
- Analyst or consultant in the private sector;
- Career in political communication or journalism.
