Job description

The Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management (SBS-EM) is the economics and management faculty of the University of Brussels, one of continental Europe's leading research universities. The School prides itself on its programs that combine scientific rigor, contextual engagement and problem-solving skills.

The SBS and the IEE are inviting applications for a part-time position to teach the course 'TRANO614 - European Economic Governance'. The course is taught in English during the second semester of the academic year (between February and May), with two examination sessions in June and August. It consists of 24 hours of face-to-face teaching, organised in two-hour sessions.

The course is open to students enrolled in the Master in Economic Governance and Public Policy in Europe, the Master in European Studies, the Master of Specialisation in European Law, and the Master of Interdisciplinary Specialisation in European Studies. The course leader will have to take into account the diversity of the audience and their varied disciplinary backgrounds.

Educational and scientific goals :

On completion of this course, having followed the essential reading list and attended the lectures, students should be able to:

- Demonstrate a thorough understanding of the integration process and the economic and political rationale for the establishment of the Single Market and EMU.
- Understand how European integration and macroeconomic policies in the EU and Eurozone have developed and impacted on individual countries.
- Demonstrate an advanced understanding of the main causes of the economic situation in Europe and their interrelationships.
- Demonstrate a critical understanding of key EU policies, instruments and underlying economic models, with particular reference to the instruments that have emerged in the wake of the Covid-19 crisis.
- Critically assess the proposals that have been put forward to strengthen economic governance and integration at EU and Eurozone level.

Courses covered at the time of recruitment :

Interested ?

For more information, please contact Mattia Nardotto (email : mattia.nardotto@ulb.be).

Your application will consist of a Curriculum Vitae (if you wish, a standard CV can be downloaded from the website: <https://www.ulb.be/fr/documents-officiels/emplois-academiques-et-scientifiques-cv-type>) and a document completed using the template available at this URL address <https://www.ulb.be/fr/documents-officiels/3e-applic-form-acad-tps-partiel-au-fh-docx>.

This template structures your application by including the following elements:

- an application letter
- a teaching dossier including a 7,000-character report (4 pages) on the applicant's previous teaching activities and a teaching project for the first five years in this position; these must be relevant to the faculty and to the teaching profiles for the programmes to which the applicant is to contribute
- the names and e-mail addresses of five referees (respecting the gender balance) who may be contacted by those in charge of evaluating applications. These referees should not have conflicts of interest because of family or emotional ties.

Incomplete applications or applications that do not use the template provided will not be examined by the selection committee.
